My Music Box Group Piano Launch Kit: Ambassador Studio

For Ambassador Studios only. These pieces use the My Music Box color palette, fonts and artwork, which are part of the Ambassador Studio partnership.

What's inside

1. Launch kit overview. Your path from training to your first full group class.
2. Trial class invite. A flyer to post or email to families.
3. Trial class reminder. A flyer to send to families who signed up.
4. Three Instagram posts. Invite, what happens in a trial class, and last spots.
5. Instagram captions. A ready-to-edit caption for each post.

How to use the flyers

Open this file in any PDF reader (Adobe Reader, Preview, Chrome or Edge). Click a line on a flyer and type your studio name, date, time, place and contact. Then print the page, or save the file and attach it to an email.

To post on Instagram, use the separate post images, and copy the matching caption from the last pages of this kit.

Group Class Launch Kit

From your training to your first full group class.

Your path, step by step

During your training: community class

Offer a free or paid music class at your local library or a preschool. Use your own songs and games, since My Music Box songs are for certified teachers. Collect the names of interested families.

After your Book 1 certification

Week 1

Invite families

Invite your community class families, and share your flyer and posts.

Week 2

Trial class and info session

30 minutes of My Music Box songs, then a short parent talk.

Week 3

Enroll and start

Send follow-up emails, enroll families, start your class.

What's in your launch kit

Trial class and info session plan
30 minute class, then a short parent talk.

Flyer and social post templates
Ready to share when you start inviting.

Enrollment follow-up emails
Turn the first visit into enrollment.

Two live coaching calls
Bring questions in your first semester.

Why one visit? Parents see their child sing and play in a real class, then get their questions answered right away. Busy families only come once.

Included with your Book 1 training as a founding teacher. Start with 4 students and grow from there.

Teach with joy. Teach with clarity.

Post 2: What happens in a trial class?

What happens in a trial class? Here's a peek.

1. Sing first. Children sing the song before they play it, so the music is in their ears before it reaches their fingers.

2. Move to the music. Rhythm comes alive in the body.

3. Play the piano. First notes, together with new friends.

After class, parents stay for a short talk about how our group class works.

Date: [Day, date] at [time]

Place: [Studio name and address]

Free, for ages 4 to 7. Message me to save a spot.
